Warsaw, Poland, Aug. 27.—Another terrorist victim was added to the long list today when General Wondarski was shot and killed by an unknown man. The assassin escaped.

PREMIER TERRORIZED.

(Bulletin.)

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—Premier Stolypin, completely terrorized as the result of the attempt on his life Saturday, when 32 persons were killed and many were injured by the explosion of bombs in his residence, has advised the czar not to yield to the grand dukes, who urge the appointment of a military dictator. The premier believes that to name a dictator, at this time, would bring on a civil war in Russia, and the bomb method of persuasion employed by the terrorists converted him to the belief that the only way to prevent international war is to grant liberal reforms. The terrorists on the other hand are preparing to drive the czar home to all court attendants.

The attempt upon Stolypin's life, they assert, is only the beginning of the campaign against government officials and all who are regarded as the enemies of reform. The warfare will go on until the czar and his reactionary advisers have been frightened into giving the people liberty.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—Saturday's unsuccessful attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin, with its slaughter of 32 persons, was followed by another revolutionary move in which General Min, commander of the Semenovskiy guard regiment, and who since his promotion to be a general was attached as a personal adjutant to the suite of the emperor, was killed on the station platform at Peterhof by a young woman.

The assassin fired five shots into General Min's body with a revolver, and without resistance submitted to arrest. The capture of the girl was effected by General Min's wife, who held her until the arrival of an officer.

This was the third attempt on the life of General Min, who was condemned to death by the terrorists immediately after the Moscow revolt last December on account of stern repression practiced by a battalion under his command, and especially for the wholesale execution of persons condemned by drumhead courtmartial for being caught with arms.

General Min was returning from his summer residence at Peterhof and had just greeted his wife and daughter on the platform when the girl approached from behind and fired the fatal shots. The girl did not attempt to escape.

To the police she acknowledged that she did the deed, saying she executed the sentence of the fighting organization of the social revolutionists, but refused to give her name.

Only last week, after the conclusion of the maneuvers at Krasnoye-selo, General Min dismissed the bodyguard which accompanied him since the first attempt was made on his life, saying the ordinary police of Peterhof would be sufficient to guard him.

the end of December to Moscow to assist in putting down the uprising there.

STOLYPIN HORROR

Is Only a Sample of What May Be Expected of Terrorists.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—Premier Stolypin's daughter, one of those injured by the bomb explosion in the premier's summer home Saturday, and who was erroneously reported to have died, is still alive. The premier's son, who also was hurt, is better. The telegram sent by Emperor Nicholas to M. Stolypin after the explosion was as follows: "I can not find words to express my indignation. I hope with all my heart that the health of your son and daughter will soon be restored, and likewise that of the other persons injured." Two more persons injured by the explosion died, bringing the total number of deaths up to 32. The central committee of Social Revolutionists issued a proclamation which declares that unless the government forthwith alters its policy such acts as the attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin will be pursued to the utmost and government representatives will be killed by hundreds.

GIRL DROPS BOMB

Nobody Injured Except Girl Whose Hand Was Shattered—Two Arrests Are Made.

(Bulletin.)

Odessa, Aug. 27.—A girl dropped a bomb in the Nicholas boulevard 50 paces from the palace of Governor Kaulbars. There was a deafening detonation and a wild stampede of promenaders. None was injured except the girl who dropped the bomb, whose hand was shattered. It is supposed the bomb accidentally fell from her hand. She and another girl and a university student accompanying them were arrested.

SIXTH TIME

Lightning Struck the Elm It Restored Fisher's Hearing, But Only for a Few Hours.

Noblesville, Ind., Aug. 27.—A bolt of lightning that struck an elm tree 40 feet from where he was sitting temporarily restored the hearing of John Fisher, who has been almost totally deaf for eight years.

During a thunder storm Sunday Mr. Fisher was seated on his veranda. For the sixth time in as many weeks lightning struck a large elm tree, passed up and shot out of the top like a huge bushy flame. Mr. Fisher did not feel the shock, but he immediately noticed that he was no longer deaf. He could hear as well as he ever could. Members of his family conversed with him in an ordinary tone of voice and he seemed to have no further use for his ear trumpet. He remained in this condition for several hours, and then became deaf again as suddenly as his hearing had been restored.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH UNDER WHEELS OF A TRAIN

Patrick Hartigan, a laborer employed in North Newark had a narrow escape from being struck by a north bound train on the B. & O. on Monday, shortly after noon. Hartigan was returning to his work and was near the Leroy street crossing as the north bound train was approaching. A man in a party ahead of Hartigan, who had crossed the track, called to him and he started across the track to join the other men when his foot slipped and he fell directly in front of the swiftly approaching train. Hartigan is crippled in one leg and this was known by one of the men of the party ahead who ran to his rescue and barely succeeded in assisting him off the track as the train passed. The engineer had already begun to apply the brakes to his train.

SUIT CASE

That Porters Banged Around Was Found to Contain Dynamite and Burglar's Tools.

Kansas City, Aug. 27.—For six weeks the porters and check boys of the Boyer hotel have been throwing an ordinary looking suit case around the checkroom. It was left there by a man who registered as Thomas Jamison, who said when he left that it would be gone only a day. Sunday the case was opened and found to contain 10 pounds of dynamite, powder, percussion caps, fuses and a complete kit of burglar tools. Costly clothing also was in the suit case. The laundry was the name "L. M. Travis."

Democrats of Twentieth district of Ohio nominated for congress Charles W. Lapp, vice mayor of Cleveland.

NEBRASKAN IS DUE TO ARRIVE IN NEW YORK EITHER ON
AUG. 29 OR 30.

Big Reception Takes Place in Madison Square Garden on Thursday Evening.

New York, Aug. 27.—W. J. Bryan is due to arrive here either Wednesday or Thursday on the steamer Prinzess Irene, after a tour around the world. He will be given reception at Madison Square Garden Thursday evening under the auspices of the Commercial Travelers' Anti-Trust league. Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland will preside at the reception and representative Democrats from all sections of the United States will be present. Mr. Bryan is expected to make a speech and to address one or more open-air meetings in Madison Square, composed of those who are unable to gain admittance to the Garden. The Madison Square reception will be but the beginning of a long series of similar affairs on a smaller scale which will end with a big public meeting of welcome when Mr. Bryan reaches his home in Lincoln, Neb.

The day after the Madison Square Garden reception Mr. Bryan will leave for New Haven in company with a large delegation of Connecticut supporters. In New Haven he will be the guest of the New Haven Democratic club, and will deliver an address in the open air. An interesting feature of his visit there will be a conference of leading Democrats from New England, including candidates for governor, mayors of cities, Democratic state committeemen and New England members of the Democratic national committee. This conference, it is announced, is for the purpose of agreeing upon a common basis for the campaigns of this year and of two years hence.

From New Haven Mr. Bryan will go to Bridgeport, where he will deliver an address in the evening, and the following day he will address a meeting at Jersey City. Saturday night he will be the guest of active newspaper men who cover political assignments for their papers.

DIZZY DIVES

Made by Four Boys From the Top of the Pittsburgh Bridge Into the Allegheny River.

Pittsburg, Aug. 27.—In the presence of a couple of thousand people Sunday four boys leaped from the top of the Pittsburgh Junction railway bridge, a distance of 110 feet, into the Allegheny river. None of them was injured and all of them swam ashore.

The boys were playing "bantur lead," and the daring dive was started by Paul Ruskie, aged 17. Dressed in swimming trunks the youngsters had been doing some fancy stunts in the river and had attracted a large crowd when Ruskie announced that he would dive from the top of the bridge. He at once went ashore, climbed upon the bridge and sealed the overhead work to the top. He was followed by Jack Keenan, aged 11; Frank Ferguson, aged 8, and Albert Shuttles, aged 15. Ruskie dived off head first, but the others struck the water feet first. The river and the bridge is 15 feet deep.

RACE WAR

There is Every Indication Old Ku Klux Klan Will be Reorganized at Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 27.—There is every indication that the old Ku Klux Klan will be reorganized for the avowed purpose of preventing criminal assaults on white women by negroes. The many assaults of this kind of late are prompting the citizens to bring the historic organization into existence again. Negroes in the county are arming themselves, preparing for a race war.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

William J. Bryan will be accorded a popular reception at Madison Square Garden on Thursday evening on his return from a tour around the world. On Friday Mr. Bryan will speak at New Haven, Conn., and hold a conference with prominent politicians for the purpose of planning a basis for the campaign this year and of two years hence. On Thursday evening he will deliver an address at Bridgeport, Conn., and on the following day he will speak at Jersey City. On Saturday night he will be the guest of newspaper men in New York City.

The National convention of the American Bar association will begin at St. Paul, Minn., on Wednesday and close on Friday. An urgent meeting of the Canadian cabinet has been called for this week to consider the pending dispute between Canada and the United States over the Amundson case. The case involves the right of the United States to claim the place from Amundson's claim.

Philip F. Schuyler, first son of Gen. William, will be married to Miss Mary F. Schuyler, daughter of John F. Schuyler, on Monday at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Schuyler, in New York City. The bride is a member of the Schuyler family, which has been prominent in the city for many years.

LITTLE GIRL

Frightened by Negro Jumped Fatal Feet, Sustaining Probably Fatal Injuries.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 27.—While Mrs. Martha Frye and her 10-year-old daughter were gathering elderberries on Wheeling hill they were approached by Joe Berthly, a well-known negro character, who seized the little girl and ran away with her into a vineyard. The mother screamed and others in the neighborhood were attracted, with a result that the negro was compelled to release the child and fled. Meanwhile the frightened child ran to the edge of a cliff overhanging a stone quarry, where she jumped onto the solid rock, a distance of 20 feet, sustaining what are believed to be fatal injuries.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Whether Liquor Traffic Shall Continue Under State Control to be Settled Tuesday.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 27.—Whether the liquor traffic in South Carolina shall continue under state control or whether it shall be left to the counties to say what they want as between county dispensers and prohibition will be settled in the Democratic primary to be held Tuesday. The campaign is becoming very close. Senator Tillman is fighting for the institution on the ground that it can be reformed and kept clean. The opposition has taken from a Scotch business to more than $100,000 a year. The issue is a very important one, and the campaign is becoming very close.

Victim of Bank Failure.
Chicago, Aug. 27.—John Kindler, 18, became violent and alarmed passengers on a trolley car while brooding over the loss of $40 deposited in the failed Milwaukee Avenue state bank. Kindler was arrested and held pending investigation of his sanity.

REVOLUTION IS NOW RESTING

Activity of the Last Week Is Followed by Lull in Cuba

NO FIGHTING REPORTED

OPTIMISTIC TONE CHARACTERIZES
NEWS IN WASHINGTON

Senor Pardo Expresses Belief That Trouble in Cuba Will be Short Lived.

(Bulletin.)

Havana, Aug. 27.—Senor Montalvo secretary of the interior, today issued a bulletin offering amnesty to all insurgents who go to their homes and give up the revolution against the government.

Havana, Aug. 27.—The revolution is apparently resting. After the activity of last week there has come a lull, which can only be explained on the theory that the insurgents are awaiting developments. With the forces now at their command, the insurgents are in a good position to force the government to terms regarding the nullification of former elections without resorting to open conflict. They are waiting for the government to make the move which will determine whether there is to be peace or war.

One engagement, the result of a chance meeting of bands of insurgents and loyalists is reported within the last 24 hours. This was near Casabala, where the government claims to have won a victory. Several are reported killed and wounded on both sides.

In Santa Clara province, more insurgents are taking to the brush, but no fighting is reported this morning. The recruiting of government forces is still being rushed.

OPTIMISTIC TODAY.

Washington, Aug. 27.—A decidedly optimistic tone characterizes the reports received at the state department today and there is every indication that for the time being, at least, a lull in the Cuban hostilities can be expected.

The object of the anti-Palma faction in making a demonstration of its strength having been accomplished, it is believed the revolutionists will content themselves with a few minor demonstrations, and that after this, unless some new element enters into the situation, the small bands which are now prowling about in Havana and Pinar del Rio provinces will be dispersed.

According to Havana dispatches today, however, the organization of the Cuban volunteer regiments continues and the government having been forewarned, will place its fighting forces on a firmer footing that it may be the better enabled to quell the latter troubles which seem certain to result, unless President Palma consent to a new election. This latter move is regarded as wholly impracticable.

At the Cuban legation today, Senor Pardo, secretary and charge d'affaires expressed the opinion that the revolution in his country will be short lived. He says an exaggerated idea of the importance of the disturbance has been reached through the information printed in the newspapers, much of which he declares must have emanated from revolutionary sources.

"The negroes in Cuba," he said, "are mainly responsible for the present insurrection. Approximately one-third of the inhabitants are negroes."

"With a considerable portion of the negroes in revolt, comprising as they do, so large a percentage of the population, it would be more difficult for my government to quell an insurrection than it would be for the United States if the colored portion of the inhabitants of this country should combine to attack the government."

Pardo further expresses the belief that the insurrection was built upon hopes of American intervention.

"If Palma considers the present situation so acute as to call for American intervention," he declared, "I will be immediately notified of that fact, but thus far nothing even suggesting such a contingency has been communicated to me by my government."

At Greenville, Ind., Monday Charles Williams shot and killed William Woods, to whose home he was called to attend. It is said Woods threatened the effect with an ax.

INSTITUTE IS NOW IN SESSION

ANNUAL MEETING IS HELD IN FIFTH STREET BAPTIST CHURCH THIS WEEK.

Prof. C. C. Miller of Lima, E. B. Pierson of Columbus, and Prof. Humphreys of Ironton were.

The annual session of the Licking County Teachers' Institute convened Monday morning in the Fifth Street Baptist church, in charge of the officers elected at the closing session of last year's institute—R. H. Nichols, of Hanover, president, and Miss Litzburg, of Utica, secretary. For the excellent program arranged for the week, great credit is also due to the members of the executive committee, F. P. Householder of Utica, J. B. Clifton of Homer and E. T. Osborn of Summit Station.

The list of instructors chosen also promises well for the character of the work to be done. President C. C. Miller of Lima college, and Principal F. B. Pierson of East High School, Columbus, are already well known in Newark, and to these is added the name of Professor Humphreys of Ironton. By recent action of the executive committee, another special department has been added to the work, and Miss Martha Dollison, of Logan, will have charge of the music of the institute.

Owing to late arrivals and necessary slowness in registering, the Monday morning session did not begin until an hour after the scheduled time. President Nichols called the meeting to order and announced that the opening exercises would be in charge of Miss Dollison, the music instructor. Devotional exercises were conducted by Professor Humphreys.

The introductory address of the institute was given by Professor Pierson whose long acquaintance with Licking county teachers has made him a great favorite among them. After a brief preface, expressing his pleasure at again being in Newark, Mr. Pierson proceeded to speak of "The Opportunities and Responsibilities of the Teacher."

In opening the speaker paid an eloquent tribute to Leon H. Vincent, "known already to some of those present, and before the week's end to be known to all." With an apt illustration or two, he continued with the main subject of his address. Opportunities he declared, come to everyone at least once. If the first opportunity is taken advantage of the next will be easier; but if neglected, it will never return. Some or other of us are always at some fork of our road, and we may go whichever way we will; only it must be remembered that the more opportunities are about us, the greater our responsibilities.

No one has the same powers, either in seeing or hearing or any other direction. Every soul answers to certain stimuli, but the greater the soul's development the greater the number of stimuli to which it answers. Development and growth are by no means the same thing; but increased development brings increased response to different stimuli.

A new definition for education was here suggested: "Education is a progress toward perfection." If we are not constantly progressing—developing—our education is nothing. The more branches there are to our education the more highly organized we are, the more it takes to satisfy our soul hunger, the greater our development, and the better our education.

Again, consider the question, "Is such development worth while?" The answer requires thought, and may be partly answered by a second question "Does it bring happiness?" The answer is decidedly "No" if you want to go through the world cheap. Development brings restlessness and new desires and ambitions. It is an expensive luxury. To satisfy a soul's longing for an elaborate bill of fare of a dozen dishes, is more costly than to be content with a single dish. But whenever you want a thing badly enough, the way will open.

Last of all, what can divide the single line in the soul, and so force it in to development? No one can answer for the answer must be in one's self. We must be inside before we can be outside, if you want the cheap and ready thing, other people will know it, for all is always self-revealing. What you choose is what you are, and the world will know it. On the times of the "play things" of our past, we step to higher things.

Everything is subjective whatever it is in the soul must be satisfied. Any thing for which the soul does not make a demand is superfluous, and to satisfy such non-existing desire would be money and energy wasted.

Cheapness is immoral. A cheap thing is an absolutely immoral thing, and will be a constant reproach, like anything unwholesome or unclean. Cheapness is the surest block in education's progress toward perfection.

After a fifteen minutes' intermission for registration, the president introduced the second speaker, Professor Humphreys. Like his predecessor, Mr. Humphreys expressed his pleasure at being with the Licking county teachers, although himself almost a stranger among them. As his time was limited, he did not take up for the morning the subject announced, but spoke briefly, during the fifteen minutes allotted, on the teacher and his work, his subject being, "The Characteristics of the Teacher."

There are certain characteristics essential for the successful teacher, and the first to be regarded is the physical side. The teacher who worries and loses sleep over his work can never become really efficient. Luck your troubles in the school house at night. Then the teacher wants to be able to smile and to carry good cheer into the school room. For a teacher to carry a funeral atmosphere along with him is nothing short of crime.

Professor Humphreys' remarks were so entertaining and helpful that it was a cause of regret when the arrival of the closing hour caused him to abruptly conclude his brief talk.

MISS MAYNARD WRITES A PLAY.

New York, Aug. 27.—Miss Cora Maynard has returned to the city to confer with Frank Keenan, whom Messrs. Nixon & Zimmerman have engaged to stage her play, "The Measure of a Man."

FISH SUPPLY

Proper Legislation Will be Necessary or the Lake Fish May Become a Luxury.

The fish companies are reported to be complaining that the fishing in Lake Erie is very poor and that no improvement is expected, while the season of 1905 was only fair. From the very nature of the case these conditions are certain to be worse before they can be made better, and in the meantime the question of saving the lake fisheries is a question that must become more and more urgent. The importance of this nearby and inexpensive food supply is apparent and so is the calamity that would result from its exhaustion. It is not at all clear, however, how much longer the lakes will stand the present drain or what can be done to prevent it; but unless something is done there is a prospect that fish from the lakes will become a costly luxury, and at no distant date.

Not much more can be expected from artificial propagation and there is little prospect that relief can come through existing state laws, unless these are enforced more generally and rigidly than at present. It is notorious that large concerns which are the chief offenders are rarely or never made to pay the full penalty prescribed. But, however drastic the Ohio laws and however rigidly enforced, Ohio alone cannot save the lake fisheries, nor can any other single state or even country. It is an interstate and international question, which must be effectually settled, if at all, by the lake-board states and the Washington and Ottawa governments acting in concert. Unhappily the outlook for an agreement is remote, and matters will probably be allowed to drift along as at present until some action is compelled by the prospect of a fish famine.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE ON CAR

Passengers on a Buckeye Lake Car Encounter a Loose, Live Wire With Pyrotechnic Results.

(Columbus Press-Post.)
"I wouldn't do that trick again for a hundred dollars," remarked a man in the employ of the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Interurban, Friday night, shortly after 10 o'clock. Neither would the passengers on his car. The car and people in it had just passed through a scene of pyrotechnics which was alarming and yet extremely beautiful when one could divest himself of a natural fear that something was going to happen.

It was car No. 61, leaving Buckeye Lake at 8:30 in the evening and Hebron at 8:45 for Columbus. A high speed was kept up without incident until after Reynoldsburg had been passed.

Then something was discovered to be wrong. The car slowed to a man's walk. Soon it stopped altogether. The trolley wire was found to have broken loose from the brackets holding it over the track, on which the wire lay. Gingerly the men approached it. They had no means of taking hold of it, but finally a rope was procured, thrown over the bracket, and one end attached to the wire, which was then hoisted. It was out of the way of the car, any how.

But to get past was another problem. The car backed quite a distance up the track, and then started again towards Columbus. The passengers were told to get on the side of the car farthest from the loose wire. Faster and faster flew that car, but it did not go past the break fast enough to prevent a most brilliant electrical display.

The car appeared to be in a blaze of most vivid colored flames. The faces of the passengers were ghastly from the weird light, and each had an expression of some vague fear of something dreadful to happen. It was but a moment and the car was safe. The passengers drew long breaths.

The turnpike road to peoples' hearts, I find, Lies through their mouths, or I must take mankind.—Peter Pindar.

—And the turnpike guide post is the trade mark of the National Biscuit Company. It points the way to the food of quality—biscuit and crackers so perfectly baked and properly protected; so cleanly packed and freshly kept, that they never fail to please in their mission to the appetite and heart.

This trade mark always appears in red and white. It is placed on each end of a dust and moisture proof package that keeps the contents in their original condition.

National Biscuit Company products are thus distinguished and warranted—you are thus protected and guided, in buying the most perfect of bakery products.

As an example try a package of GRAHAM CRACKERS. You will instantly recognize their superiority over any ordinary Graham crackers you ever tasted. They contain all the good of the best Graham flour enhanced by perfect baking.

The men became involved in an argument and Buck struck at the Italian who dodged and at the same time delivered a telling upper swing which left its imprint on the face of Buck. Friends of both parties separated them before either was seriously hurt.

Why City Was Dark. The city was plunged into darkness Saturday night owing to repairs at the light plant which were necessary and which required the shutting down of the plant while the repairs were made. The big belt which runs from the engines to one of the dynamos became so loose that considerable of the power was lost. It was found necessary to take 18 inches out of the belt in order to take up the lost motion. The improvement was noticeable Sunday night when the street lamps gave forth a clear, bright light.

NATIONAL APPLE DAY.

Date Set For Annually Paying Tribute to This Fruit.

Everybody get ready for Apple day. The third Tuesday of every October has been set apart by the American apple growers' congress as a day for the payment of special tribute to this glorious fruit. The observance is to begin the 16th of next October.

While there were no specific suggestion as to how Apple day should be celebrated, the members of the congress unanimously agreed on October as the month in which to hold the celebration, because about that time of the year most of the fairs take place in the southwestern states, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. It is hoped the fair dates can be arranged to coincide with the apple festival.

The members of the congress think the popularity of the apple will spread much more rapidly if Apple day is made a feature of the fairs wherever possible. In such a case apples from all over the country could be exhibited and prizes could be given for apple pies, apple candies and for the best apples from each community.

This, the apple growers think, would encourage the cultivation of the fruit, which, they say, is not half as well appreciated as it deserves to be.

In places where fairs are held either earlier or later than Apple day special apple exhibits should be held.

The members of the congress hope that the third Tuesday in October will in time become a fixed day on the calendar of the United States just as Labor day and Thanksgiving are.

And ever the ebullient torrent

THAT FALSEHOOD AGAINST ASHBROOK

Causes Coshocton Call for Scrutiny of the Personal of the Republican Candidate.

Thursday of last week the Newark American-Tribune published a false statement over the anonymous signature of "A Pattison Democrat" to the effect that Mr. W. A. Ashbrook, the Democratic candidate for Congress, had voted against the county local option resolution (so-called) at the Democratic State Convention. The falsehood was contradicted flatly and answered completely, in the columns of the Advocate on Friday by the statement of Mr. Roderic Jones over his own signature. Mr. Jones, who was a delegate present, truthfully stated, as every member of the Licking delegation knows, and in fact as the delegates generally of the 17th district know, that Mr. Ashbrook was not in the convention hall at the time the resolution was discussed and voted upon.

The two statements, that of the fictitious writer in the American-Tribune and that of Roderic Jones in the Advocate, are both published in the Coshocton Daily Times of Saturday. To these statements the editor of the Times, who was also a delegate in the convention adds his own testimony to that of Mr. Jones that Mr. Ashbrook was not in the convention hall, and that therefore the allegation of the Newark American-Tribune's anonymous writer was wholly untrue. The Times thereupon concludes its article by the following significant statement:

"The attack on Mr. Ashbrook has simply served to concentrate attention upon the acts of candidate Smyser along these same lines. The Republican organs have been loudly proclaiming their lies about what Ashbrook is not. Will they now turn and for once tell the truth about what Smyser is and where he stands on moral issues? Will they dare submit the person of their candidate for close scrutiny by the voters of the district?"

In reply to the Federation of Labor's request for his views on the bill of grievances submitted to President Roosevelt in March Senator Diehl says: "While official demands prevent me at present from undertaking discussion in detail of the subject mentioned, your letter will not fail of my careful consideration. I favor at all times the fullest recognition of the cause of labor and shall be, as I always have been, ready to support any official legislation. It will be noticed that only things "official" commend themselves to the senator. This is a relief, for there might have been a suspicion that the senator would commit himself to unofficial legislation. Any laboring man of ordinary intelligence, however, can very readily see through Senator Dick's "official" sham.

The Cause of Smyser's Worry.

A dispatch from Coshocton informs us that Congressman M. L. Smyser has been making one of his vehement speeches again and renewed his assaults on Mr. Ashbrook, the Democratic candidate. Smyser, as usual, indulged in falsehood and misrepresentation. The dispatch states that toward the close of his speech Mr. Smyser was suddenly stricken with great pain and had to be taken from the hall to the hotel in a fainting condition, where several doctors were called who worked with him for a long time. He was finally sufficiently restored to be sent home, still a sick man, although a dispatch from Wooster today states he is recovering.

At the conclusion of his speech in Newark accepting the Republican nomination, Smyser got so vehement as to practically demand that Mr. Ashbrook "get out of my way and not embarrass me in my campaign."

But Mr. Ashbrook has paid no attention to Smyser's vehement demands and has not gotten out of his way. On the contrary he is carrying on a clean, active and persevering campaign against Smyser that is proving very effective and promises to carry every county in the district, which means that Ashbrook will be elected by an old time Democratic majority.

The very evident prospect of all this is sufficient to cause Mr. Smyser great agitation of mind and vexation of spirit. Ashbrook not only declines to get out of the Republican Congressman's way but is putting up an honorable and successful campaign that cannot fail to defeat Smyser.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune prints this: "Wanted, a safe and sane bank examiner before instead of after." Here's another Republican paper that sees how bank examination doesn't examine. The time is coming when there will be bank examiners appointed because of fitness and ability to make examinations. Politics will cut no figure, but it will be after the Republican party is put out of power.

FORAKER WILL DEFEND POSITION

IN REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IF SENATOR IS GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY.

Difference Between Other Members of Ohio Delegation and President
Cited by Foraker.

Washington, Aug. 27.—In an interview given out here Senator Foraker candidly expressed his views on the discussion as to what action the Republican convention of Ohio should take respecting platform endorsements of the president and the Ohio delegation in congress.

"I am sorry to learn," he said, "that the Republicans of Ohio are having some sharp controversies, but the subjects of difference do not seem to be very important. I can not think, therefore, that there is likely to be any serious injury done to the party whatever may happen to individuals. So far as endorsing me is concerned, that is not important to anybody except myself, and I shall try to accept with equality whatever may be the convention's action."

Referring to the statehood fight Senator Foraker said: "Excepting the rate bill, I supported the president as to every other measure he urged, except only joint statehood for Arizona and New Mexico. I opposed that except on condition they should be allowed to determine by vote in each territory whether they wanted joint statehood. I think the great majority of the people were opposed to the idea of the president forcing joint statehood upon these territories against their protest."

On the subject of rate legislation he said: "It is true that I opposed the Hepburn bill, but not, as it is commonly stated in the newspapers, because I was opposed to governmental regulation and supervision of railroads, for the record will show that I have done as much in that behalf as any other Ohio man in congress, but because I thought the Hepburn bill unwise, unjust and unconstitutional. My contention was that under existing law which I helped to enact, having been a member of the subcommittee that framed it, especially if amended as it should be, every serious wrong of every kind practiced by the railroads can be remedied, and that all evil practices can be broken up as nearly as any law will enable us to break them up. Everything I said in that respect has been already fully justified and vindicated by the many successes the attorney general has met with in the numerous prosecutions he has instituted during the last nine months, until which time—long after the debate commenced, no one seemed to realize, not even the government's own officials—the excellence of the laws we already had. Existing laws have been found, according to the judgments rendered in these proceedings, to apply to every kind of rebate or discrimination between individuals or localities, no matter under what name, form or guise practiced, that anybody has yet complained about. When somebody finds some evil practice that existing laws do not forbid and provide an expeditious remedy against and heavy punishment for, I may change my mind as to the correctness of my action, as to whether it was wise or not, but not until then. This is a great subject, full of troublesome questions both of law and of policy that can not be properly discussed in an interview."

Speaking of Congressman Burton's suggestion Mr. Foraker said: "As to myself, I shall not make any request of the convention nor any complaint as to its action, whatever that may be; but I can not forbear suggesting in this connection that if that convention should try to conform to the rule prescribed by Mr. Burton of endorsing 'less cordially' than the president those who may have differed from the president as to some matter—no matter how honestly—it would have some hard problems to solve."

"For instance, if Senator Dick is to be endorsed 'less cordially' than the president because he did not agree with the president about the Philippine tariff bill," said Senator Foraker, "what is the convention to do as to General Keifer and the six other distinguished Ohio Republican members of congress who joined with that sturdy old veteran in opposing and voting against the president as to that measure—one of them, Mr. Nevins, who represents the district in which the convention will be held? Are they also to be 'partially rebuked' by endorsing them 'less cordially' than the president and their colleagues who voted with the president? And how about Mr. Burton himself? Would he not be 'hoist by his own petard'? Does he not now and then kick over the traces and differ from the president and from his party? Is he to be endorsed 'less cordially' than the president because he has opposed the president's policy of increasing the navy? Is not the navy, so to speak, the apple of the president's eye—the biggest of his big sticks—and are not the people with the president as to his naval policy by an overwhelming majority? Suppose we take another case: The president and Secretary Taft made known to congress at the last session that unless we restricted them to America they would go abroad to purchase

The Company has just declared a cash mortuary dividend on Policies over 5 years in force which have matured and shall mature in 1906. To all death claims on Policies over 5 years in force it adds 5 per cent.; to all death claims on Policies over 6 years in force, 6 per cent., and an

These dividends are over and above the dividend declared on Industrial Policies January 1 last, which was a quinquennial cash dividend, amounting to about 20 per cent. of the premium for a year, declared on

Thus the Company THIS YEAR has declared and IS PAYING dividends on Industrial Policies amounting to Every one of these Policies is non-participating, promising a definite sum only at maturity, without dividends. The payment of the dividend

INTERMEDIATE

Intermediate Policies for $500 each have been issued by the Metropolitan for 10 years past. They are Policies designed for such of the Industrial classes as can afford to pay annual, semi-annual or quarterly to be paid in dividends on Intermediate Policies during 1906. Payment of these dividends has brought the cost of the Policies very nearly down to the non-participating rates of this and other Ordinary companies.

Six Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars

ORDINARY

The Ordinary Policies issued by the Company for the last 15 years have been practically all written on non-participating rates—plain business contracts for plain business men, which tell their whole story upon their face, leave nothing to the imagination, borrow nothing from hope, require definite conditions and make definite promises in dollars and cents. The rates, therefore, are low. The Company has in force, however, a considerable, though, compared with its total business, a very small percentage of participating business. Some of the Policies were issued on annual dividend and some on deferred dividend plan—many of the latter having been issued by other companies and assumed by the Metropolitan. Upon these Policies the Company has this year declared and is paying a dividend equal to the excess premium charged by mutual rates over the non-participating rates charged on its current business. The amount of this dividend is nearly TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, which is a voluntary extra dividend.

supplies and materials to be used in the construction of the Panama canal when they could buy them cheaper abroad, saving money by the purchase, and as they were to be used in Panama and not brought into the United States, saving the tariff duty besides. I think I may safely say that with a great majority of the American people this proposition was not popular. Certainly, to Republicans generally, it seemed inconsistent with all we have been contending for with respect to a protective tariff. The idea of constructing the most majestic work in progress in all the world, the greatest ever undertaken by any nation, a purely American enterprise to be built by Americans and paid for by American money, and going abroad to buy materials and supplies, thus giving patronage to foreign manufacturers and giving employment to foreign labor instead of buying in America from Americans, and giving all the advantages to our own people, seemed so unpatriotic and indefensible that congress adopted a resolution prohibiting it except in cases, if there should be any such, where the president might deem it necessary to do so to escape extortion. In the senate this resolution received the support of every Republican. In the house it was supported by the vote of every Ohio Republican except Mr. Burton. He voted no. I do not mention him to criticize him, for he not only had a perfect right but his duty to vote if that was his judgment. No self-respecting man would consent to hold a seat in congress if he could not so vote; but I mention it to show that if we endorse the party and what congress has done—as we must—and then apply his rule, he will have to be endorsed 'less cordially' than his party. So I might go on indefinitely asking and answering many other similar questions, but I forbear until the convention, when, if I have opportunity, I will be glad to go fully into the subject for the benefit of all who may be sufficiently concerned to listen, if there are any such."

STARTS FOR OHIO.

Washington, Aug. 27.—It is Senator Foraker's intention to leave for Cincinnati, this afternoon. "I don't believe it is necessary to add anything to my statement of last night," he said. "I observe the Ohio papers predict that I am to meet Senator Diehl for a conference. If we have a conference it will be at the Dayton convention, I presume. I had no understanding with him on the subject. Talk about combination is all nonsense. In fact, I was trying to keep away from Ohio politics and had no intention of going to the convention, but when Burton and others assailed me I thought it best to be there."

HUSTLED

At the Rate of 100 Miles an Hour and the Train Pulled Into Buffalo on Time.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 27.—When the Empire State express passed through Grimsesville Friday afternoon it was traveling at the rate of 100 miles an hour. It was eight minutes late at Crittenden, and James W. Varley, the engineer, decided that he would reach Buffalo on time if it was in the locomotive to do it.

The train had come on from Syracuse to Corfu on the schedule to the instant. Just out of Corfu, however, the train came to a sudden stop. Investigation showed a disconnection in the air pipes. This was easily remedied, but in the meantime eight minutes had been consumed and only 20 miles remained in which to make it up. When the train pulled out after the delay Varley gave the engine all the throttle. The first ten miles were made in eight minutes. Three miles were run at an average below 40 seconds and one mile was made at the phenomenal speed of 36 seconds.

When the Empire pulled into the New York Central Station it was on time. It had made up eight minutes in running 20 miles.

MYSTERIOUS DOUBLE MURDER ON THE STREETS OF PORTSMOUTH, O.

MRS. HUGHES AND HARR DEAD

--Ohio News.

Portsmouth, O., Aug. 27.—Jarrett Hughes today made a full confession of the murder of his wife, Flora Hughes, and John Harr, in whose company he found her Sunday night. Hughes took the officers to the home of a brother, with whom he left his revolver during his flight. It was found hidden in a stable.

Hughes claimed he sought a reconciliation with his wife, but finding her with the man who had wrecked their home, drove him to the dead. The police have evidence showing that the double tragedy was carefully planned. Immediately after the shooting Hughes hunted up Miss Jessie Rockwell, with whom he had been keeping company, took her to his own home, telling her to swear they had been together all evening. She was there when the officers found Hughes, but this morning she admitted she had deceived the officers. It is believed Hughes will plead guilty.

Portsmouth, O., Aug. 27.—A mysterious murder in which two persons were killed was committed here on the streets.

Mrs. Flora Hughes and John Harr were at their homes with bullet holes through their bodies, while the woman's husband, Jarrett O. Hughes, is in the county jail charged with the crime. He denies knowing anything about the shooting, although several eyewitnesses to the affair are positive in their identification.

Mrs. Hughes and Harr were walking together on Third street. Just as they got under the light of the street lamp at Jefferson street a man rushed out from hiding and approached the couple from behind. He walked in between them, separating them, and the next instant five revolver shots were heard in quick succession. Harr staggered a few steps and dropped dead before help could reach him. Mrs. Hughes fell in her tracks, but was not dead when pedestrians reached her. She was hurried to the city hospital, but expired as she was being placed on the operating table. Hughes and his wife were separated.

Those who saw the shooting immediately declared that Jarrett Hughes was the man who did it, and a search was instituted for him. He was found at the home of his father, William Hughes, and submitted to arrest quietly, declaring he knew nothing about the crime.

MISS BESSIE MILLER writes:
LEWIS, S. C., Jan. 10, 1906.
"I am so delighted with the results of your Nadinola. Of the many preparations I have used, Nadinola is the first and only one that will positively remove freckles. Clear and beautify the complexion. I can't say enough in praise of your exquisite toilet articles. I find them to be all that you claim for them."

Thousands of other ladies have used NADINOLA and recommend it as superior to all other preparations for removing discolorations and beautifying the complexion. Price of Nadinola 50c. and $1.00, always at the leading drug stores. Prepared by National Toilet Co., Paris, Tenn.

Not in the Well.
Troy, O., Aug. 27.—When the well on the Jacob place was cleaned out there were no traces of the body of the missing woman, Jennie Todd. Prosecuting Attorney A. B. Campbell has not decided on his next move in this investigation, but every effort will be made to clear the mystery. A letter was received from a woman at Arcanum asking whether a reward has been offered for the body. This is regarded as a clew.

Fatal Wager.
Zanesville, O., Aug. 27.—Emmett Hotchkiss, 17, of Malta, was instantly killed. He was crossing the Muskingum river hand over hand on a wire and touched his feet to a highly charged electric light wire underneath him. He was performing the feat on a wager when he met his death.

Loss For McKinnon.
Ashtabula, O., Aug. 27.—Fire originating in the iron works belonging to W. S. McKinnon, state treasurer, at Ashtabula Harbor, laid a large portion of the harbor business section in ruins and resulted in a loss of more than $65,000.

ARMED MEN

Guarded Bridal Couple While Jilted
Lover, With Shotgun, Prowled Around the House.

Salineville, O., Aug. 27.—Guarded by four deputy constables and while an alleged maniac who claimed to be her jilted lover prowled about the house with a loaded shotgun, Miss Margaret Williams, who lives near here, was married to Clyde Barlow of Lisbon.

The situation was most unique. In the house of the bride's parents where the wedding took place, all was merriment, no one suspecting the danger that lay without. Doing picket duty about the house were the four constables, with loaded shotguns and revolvers, watching to foil any attempt at assassination of the bridal couple.

A youth, who claims to be Miss Williams' jilted lover, was carefully watched until the bridal couple were on board a train starting for their honeymoon.

On the day for which the marriage was set this man was seen going to the Williams home with a shotgun. The constable was hastily notified, and swearing in four deputies he placed them about the house not notifying anybody that there was danger. The ride to the train, which was boarded at this place, was reminiscent of pioneer days when Puritan brides were guarded with blunderbusses. Armed men guarded the bride on the five mile drive to Salineville and the entire ceremony and departure were accomplished without a hitch.

SWIMMING HOLE OR A BAPTISMAL FONT?

Delaware, Aug. 27.—Because they refused to come out of the Olentangy river, in which they were enjoying a swim, and turn their swimming hole over to the pastor of the United Brethren church with six candidates for baptism, six urchins were brought before the mayor and given the law on swimming within the city limits.

Voted For High License.
Russellville, Ky., Aug. 27.—Russellville declared for high license in the local option election by a majority of 67. Prohibitionists were very active. A procession of 30 children, under charge of the W. C. T. U. and several preachers, marched with banners to the different voting precincts and sang songs and prayed for a Prohibition victory. Church bells rang hourly throughout the day and prayer meetings were held by the women at the several churches.

Incendiary's Work.
Elizabethtown, Ky., Aug. 27.—Fire ruined the Black Diamond Shumac plant, near East View. The loss is estimated at $29,000, with no insurance. Owners of the plant declare the fire was of incendiary origin.

Car Hit Auto.
Providence, R. I., Aug. 27.—A touring automobile containing seven persons was run down by a trolley car at Lakewood. The chauffeur, Oliver La Bell, was instantly killed, and Aimes Frazeau, a liquor inspector of Fall River, owner of the machine, was probably fatally injured. George J. Pauquette of Fall River was severely hurt. The other occupants escaped injury, though the machine was completely wrecked.

W. I. Haynes, optician at Haynes Bros., is out of the city this week for a much needed rest.

VELVET WITH WINGS.

The attention of the Audubon Society, with its worthy object of discouraging the slaughter of birds for millinery purposes, may be relaxed this season; at any rate, so far as the fashion of wearing feathers in many sorts and shapes upon the new hats is concerned. Shapes and sizes of wings such as never grew upon any bird that flew are what the designers are using mostly, and that in colors which Audubon himself would fail to classify as belonging in even the remotest connection to the feather effects most in use today find feathery tribes. The feathers and their origin in the barnyard, and the number of "hands" required to make up the pieces, that figure in the millinery catalogues is much on the increase. Examination will prove that most of the so-called wings, birds, beasts, etc., are all of them pasted upon a net or muslin foundation, well wired, so that they may be bent to any shape or angle that caprice may suggest or fashion dictate.

The pretty and becoming shape illustrated is in a medium shade of brown, with the side smartly turned up, and a set of those artificial "wings" cleverly disposed for trimming effect. One large piece is so managed that it covers the low drum-shaped crown and almost the entire brim in front, the pin feathers extending well toward the back. The upturned side is faced with a similar effect, while the bandeau is ruffled with a mass of filmy white malinette, this making for the combination of brown and white that is so effective and so fashionable this season.

FRENCH MINISTER WHO SAYS POPE MUST YIELD.

M. Briand.

Paris, Aug. 21.—M. Briand, the minister of public worship, received several of his political supporters and discussed with them the situation created by the Pope's encyclical letter to the French archbishops and bishops with reference to their attitude toward the law for the separation of church and state. M. Briand stated that the government was disposed to enter upon negotiations with the Pope for an understanding based on a modification of the law, which he declared must be applied as it stands.

CARMEN STRIKE.
Nearly All of San Francisco Street Lines Are Tied Up.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—With the exception of California and Grand street lines, street railway traffic in this city was suspended as the result of the strike of conductors and motormen of the United railway system. The United railway made a statement to run cars, and consequently traffic was no longer a disaster. Further action by the union awaits the arrival of Patrick Galbraith, president of the United railway, en route from the east.

The action of the union was determined at a mass meeting of the carmen's union to enforce demands for $2 a day and a workday of eight hours, taken in spite of the efforts of Mayor Schmitz to avert the strike.

PALMA'S PLAN.
Proposed an Amnesty For Rebels but His Advisers Object.
Havana, Aug. 27.—The government decided to issue an amnesty of 50 days under which persons bearing arms who return peacefully to their homes will be pardoned. The anxiety of President Palma to extend every possible opportunity for peace without bloodshed and his desire to permit those who joined the insurrection under compulsion to repent and return to their homes unharmed, combined with the general wish to end a situation fraught with so much loss and suffering, led to consideration by the president and his cabinet of an amnesty. Persons close to the president strongly opposed the measure and the matter was deferred and may be relinquished. Colonel Montalvo, acting secretary of the interior, said that at present there was no intention to issue an amnesty. Other friends of President Palma declared it would be an unwise move.

Sunday proved to be a day of inactivity, but preparations proceeded without abatement. A fund of $2,000,000 was set aside for defense and drafts on it are heavy and constant.

POLICE QUELL SEVERAL ROWS

SHORT BUT BUSY SESSION OF
POLICE COURT MONDAY MORNING.

James Allen Again Up For Scolding on Sunday—Albert Crane Arrested for Disturbing Neighbors.

The usual Monday grind in police court was rather short, there being but a few cases. Sunday was rather quiet, there being only two serious disturbances besides a couple of platy drunks.

Silas O. Preston was a complainant at the mayor's office Sunday and as a result two affidavits were filed against Albert Crane. One charged him with being intoxicated and another with using profane language. Crane pleaded not guilty. Mr. Preston testified that Crane had been drunk for some time and that the language he used about the house was bad. The case was continued.

Officers were called to the livery stable operated by Wise & McDowell between Fifth and Sixth streets, south of Main, where a young man was raising a disturbance. The fellow had been drinking and wanted to fight. Another man present was willing to accommodate him and the two clashed. Friends separated them and they got together again. Both were fined today.

Mike McGinnis was arrested because his mother and sister could no longer stand his abusive conduct about the house. Officers Moore and Jamison made the arrest and the neighbors told the officers that McGinnis chased the women out of the house. He was fined $10 and costs on two charges.

Two plain drunks were fined $5 and costs. James K. Allen, the proprietor of the Last Chance saloon on Union street was charged with selling liquor on Sunday. Allen has been before the mayor three times in as many months. Once he was found guilty and fined for selling liquor to minors. The mayor fined him $25 and costs.

Turnkey George McCrum who has been enjoying a vacation for a week, was again on duty at the police station Monday. Officer Swank who has been taking Mr. McCrum's place will return to night duty tonight.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

There was great joy in the Molders' camp last night as well as in the hearts of the fans who have supported them loyally. The cause of the joy was the fact that we took two games from New Castle and both games came our way as a result of hard and consistent hitting and good punching.

It is true that both games were marred by a few bad errors and for a time it looked as though the first game would be lost through the fooling of the Newark men. Berryhill was the front of the funmaking in the bleachers and in spite of this fact, he seemed to hit pretty well and opportunely too. The fact of the matter is, that so since the first of the season has there been as many poor throws as there were in the Saturday and Sunday New Castle games. It may be because Berryhill is playing first but at any rate it is a fact.

FIRST GAME.

Owing to the fact that Lefty Webb does not play Sunday ball, it was necessary to call upon Lefty Snyder to pitch the opener with the Nocks. Lefty did it and pitched well. He had one bad inning, the eighth, when two hits, two errors, and one batsman hit by a pitched ball allowed the New Castle bunch to score three runs. However, after that, Snyder held them safe and it was not necessary to go into extra innings.

Our old friend Rube Bowers did the pitching for the Outlaws and he treated us quite generously. We managed to pole out eight hits at opportune times, which netted us the four runs, enough to win the game.

Snyder featured his own game by plouting out a double and a triple besides pitching better ball than Bowers.

Davis scored in the first after getting a pass, taking second on Iger's bunt hit which Ned beat to first. Wratten attempted to bunt the third strike and was out but Danny stole third. Schweitzer walked after Danny had scored on Iger's long single. The new man teased Murphy's throw to second and Schweitzer started home but was caught at the plate.

In the second, Bailey singled and was sacrificed to second. Snyder fled to second and Winters singled, scoring Bailey from Pinkney's station. Davis was out from Pinkney to first, leaving Winters at second.

Newark scored again in the fourth when Haval doubled after Bailey was out. Snyder followed with another double, scoring Haval. Winters and Davis were out on infield grounders.

Snyder uncorked the seventh inning by sending a drive to left center for three sacks. Winters was out from third to first and Davis sent a short fly to center. Iger got a life on Huling's error and Snyder scored. Iger was out at third later on a fielder's choice.

Bowers opened the eighth with a phony single which he got on a slow ball sent up by Snyder. Smith grounded to first and was out. Long got hit with a pitched ball and Pinkney sent another grounder to first and was out. Snyder fielded Burke's infield hit and made a bad throw to Berryhill. Bowers scored. Huling singled and Long scored. Berryhill fooled another throw on Anderson's grounder and Burke counted. Clark fled to Bailey in right and that was the last opportunity the Nocks had to tie the score.

Second Game.

The Newark management decided they could win in seven innings as well as nine and so both managers agreed to shorten the contest. Mr. Lindsey, the star comedian, formerly with Bates' Sharon bunch, was sent in to serve the benders for the defeated Nocks. He passed Davis and after Iger and Wratten were down, Schweitzer laced one out for two pilows. Berryhill's single scored both men. With two out in the second, Davis walked again and three singles followed with two stolen bases, scoring three more runs.

In the fifth with one out, Schweitzer got his third single and Berryhill copped out his double, scoring Al from first.

Linke's bad inning came in the fourth. Long led off with a fly to Wratten. Pinkney walked, Burke singled and Huling singled a fly scoring Pinkney. Huling died at second when Anderson got a life on a fielder's choice. Clark walked and Murphy hit safely scoring Anderson. That was all for Lindsey hit to Berryhill and was out at first.

Murphy got a double in the sixth but a neat double play following lost them all chance to score. Snodgrass and Davis each singled in the sixth but there was nothing doing. Score:

STOUP FAILED TO SAVE GAME

Webb Got Bad Start and Was Derricked by Snodgrass

DRAKE PUZZLED MOLDERS

ALLOWED FOUR SCATTERED HITS BUT NO RUNS CAME

Berryhill Played Better Game At First But Failed to Hit--Stoup Was Batted Hard.

Inability to hit Pitcher Drake successively in Saturday's contest with New Castle, gave the Nocks the game with a 5 to 0 score in a game which was featured by the hard hitting of the New Castle players.

Webb started in to pitch the game but was pretty wild. He passed Smith, the first man up and Long, who came next, clouted out a two sacker. The Big South Paw had two balls on Cupid Pinkney when Manager Snodgrass called him out and substituted Pitcher Stoup.

It was probably the right thing to do but it didn't have the desired effect. The team fell into the old rut of non-support with Stoup in the box and it was with seeming ease that Smith's men took the game.

Danny Davis was back in the game and he celebrated his return by making three rank errors. All the chances were easy but for some reason Danny could only juggle the ball while the runner went to first without interference. In spite of these many errors, Davis seemed to have no trouble in getting under four difficult fies and accepting three other chances.

Berryhill, Newark's new infielder, was placed on first and played fairly good ball. He went through the game without an error but like the rest of the team, was unable to hit Drake successfully.

Umpire Kid Lavelle worked and as usual there was considerable complaint on both sides. Pitchers who are compelled to work against Lavelle's umpiring are surely up against a hard proposition and their records are sure to suffer. Smith, Long and Pinkney were the heavy hitters, each getting a single and two sacker. The score:

ZANESVILLE TEAM TRANSFERRED TO MARION---FIRST GAME TUESDAY

Zanesville is up in Arms Over Action of Drumm and Anderson--Papers Comment on Change--Pres. Morton Comes in for His Share of the Blame.

Zanesville, Aug. 27.—The members of the Zanesville baseball club left for Marion, their future home, at noon today, and Zanesville is therefore off the baseball map for the remainder of the season. President Morton announced that the required number of league managers had voted for the transfer and Sunday the Marion people wired their acceptance of the terms. It is understood that the Marion people paid between $2,000 and $3,000 for the Zanesville franchise and players.

Although Drumm does not retain any interest in the club, he will continue to manage them. Anderson will be out of baseball for the remainder of this season at least, and will return to Canton to his old trade of watchmaker. In an indirect way it is learned that both he and Drumm will again be in baseball together next season and in the O. & P. league, too.

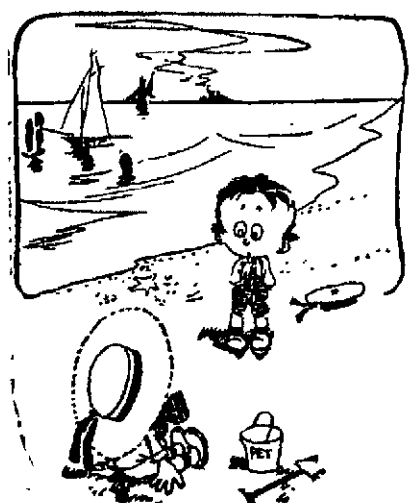

Four men on the team are under non-reserve contract with the club, and are therefore free at the end of the season. Among these are Captain Cooper, but he says that he will give Drumm the first chance at his services. Quinn, Flood and Mueller are others who are not reserved.

All of the business of the club and managers will be wound up before Anderson leaves the city. The lease on Gant park reverts back to F. M. Townsend, who will control the grounds as heretofore. The grandstand cushions have been sold to the Newark club and will be sent there today. The grandstand and bleachers of course belong to the park.

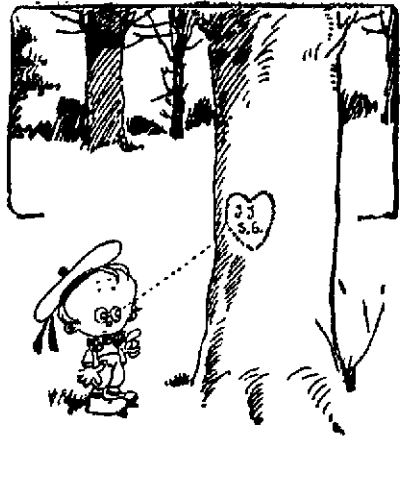

Zanesville will still have a first-class ball grounds for next season, when it is expected a team, backed by local people will represent the city. Plans for putting in a team here next season are already being discussed and have been ever since the first hint that the

Of Clarence Gifford, Formerly of Toledo, Charges Him With Bigamy.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Aug. 27.—A warrant has just been sworn out by Mrs. Mary Gifford of this city, for the arrest of her husband, Clarence Gifford, formerly of Toledo, Ohio, on a charge of wife abandonment and bigamy.

It is charged that Gifford, when living with his lawful wife and his children here, paid court to and then married Miss Mary J. Fernby, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Fernby, of Omaha, leaving with her for the west the day of their marriage. The announcement of the marriage came in a letter from Gifford's second wife to her mother in Omaha. The letter was written in Denver, where the couple went direct from Omaha, and in it the writer said that she and her husband were going from there to Seattle, where it is presumed they now are.

It is evident from the letter that Miss Fernby married Gifford in ignorance of the fact that he had a wife and children only five miles from where the marriage took place.

EXTRA FINGERS

Were Sacrificed by the Lad So That He Could Become a Sailor in the Navy.

Pittsburg, Aug. 27.—Commander C. H. Harlow, U. S. N., had an odd experience last week. About the middle of last week a young fellow appeared at the naval recruiting station for enlistment. He was a bright young fellow and in perfect physical condition, except that he had six fingers on each hand. That barred him, and as pleasantly as possible the commander explained that under the rules of the navy department he could not be accepted.

The lad was seemingly downcast as he went away, and the commander thought no more of the matter until Saturday when the young fellow walked into the recruiting station and again applied for enlistment. Removing the light wrappings from his hands, he proudly showed the scars, now nearly healed, where the superfluous digits had been removed.

He had gone to the Homeopathic Hospital and had the fingers amputated. "They were always in the way, anyhow," he said.

As there was nothing else that stood in the way of the boy becoming a sailor if he desired he was accepted and the oath administered.

FIFTY THOUSAND

In Checks Stolen From the Mail Found in a Field Near Effingham, Ill.

Terre Haute, Aug. 27.—It has been learned that a mail pouch containing $50,000 in checks forwarded by Terre Haute banks to their Chicago bank correspondents was missing for two weeks and when found in a field near Effingham, Ill., the letters had been rifled, but the checks were not taken away. Instead they were lying on the ground, the worse for a few rain stains, but still decipherable. Money was taken from the letters, perhaps $200 in all, judging from the contents of the letters. The pouch was taken from the depot platform at Effingham in the night while awaiting transfer from the Vandavia to the Illinois Central road. The McKoon bank had sent $30,000 in checks, the Terre Haute National $11,000 and the First National $9,000.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN LOUISIANA

After Confessing His Guilt Schaufriet Was Hanged to Telegraph Pole at Calhoun.

Calhoun, La., Aug. 27.—Alfred Schaufriet, a negro, was lynched here by a mob for attempting to criminally assault Miss Olive Chambers, a prominent young woman of this place. Schaufriet was frightened by the screams of his intended victim and fled, but was captured by a posse a few miles out of town. He was brought back to town and after confessing his guilt was hanged to a telegraph pole. The following notice was posted on the negro's body: "This is a warning to all negroes who would attempt to force an entrance to the apartments of white women."

SHORT LINE

From Columbus Into Michigan Being Constructed With All Speed by Schoepf Syndicate.

Lima, O., Aug. 27.—W. Kesley Schoepf and his associates in the Indiana, Columbus and Eastern, have just finished placing 30,000 ties on the Defiance-Lima end of the recently purchased steam road, the Columbus and Lake Michigan. The roadbed between here and Defiance is said to be in almost perfect condition. While nothing has been done on the line between here and Bellefontaine, which will connect the Schoepf properties north and south, save only the surveys, this road is to be constructed next spring. The immense amount of money on the north end goes to show that the scheme for an air line between Columbus, Ohio, and Jackson, Michigan, far from being abandoned, is daily being perfected.

The force engaged on the Lima and Toledo line north as far as Deshler was doubled the past week, and rails are almost down between these two points. This road is scheduled for a formal opening September 15, and will completely parallel the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton between Lima and Toledo.

MISS GRACE GEORGE.

New York, Aug. 27.—Manager William A. Brady thinks he has fitted Miss Grace George next season with Avery Hapwood's and Channing Pollock's "Clothes." Mr. Hapwood is a Cleveland newspaper man who wrote the play. Channing Pollock afterward revised it.

It had a recent series of trial performances in Milwaukee, under the management of Wagenhals & Kemper who announced their intention of producing it.

ting the work on in this city. They sought to obtain the Manhattan Theatre for the purpose, following the run there of "The Kreuzer Sonata," but arrangements had been perfected for Miss George beginning her season there early next month.

The offer of Wagenhals & Kemper was then amplified to include Miss George as the actress of the principal woman's role, with Mr. Brady as a partner in the enterprise, but this, too, was refused, and the negotiations at length resulted in obtaining the play for her on condition that it should be put forward as her first offering in the Manhattan.

So late as 1812 the East India company decided that trade with Japan was not worth cultivating.

THE PARIS OF CHILE.

Luxury of the Homes and the Parks of Santiago.

Santiago, which has been partly wrecked by the recent earthquake in South America, was the Paris of Chile. The citizens boasted that there was nothing in the gay European city which they could not secure in Santiago, says the Kansas City Star. They appear to have plenty of money, their tastes are refined and their habits tend toward the luxurious. The homes are beautiful, the women dress with extravagance, but with good taste, and the streets of the city are filled with carriages which compare favorably with those to be seen in Central park or upon the boulevards of Paris. The elite of Santiago have their brass buttoned, silk tiled, ramrodlike coachmen and footmen the same as do the proudest of the families of the better known countries.

Santiago thinks little of business. It is the capital and the seat of culture of the country. Valparaiso, four hours distant by express trains, is the mart of Chile and the Santiago residents are content to allow their neighbors on the coast to attend to commerce while they uphold the social glory of the republic. The Alameda is the principal thoroughfare of Santiago. It is 600 feet wide and extends the entire length of the city from Santa Lucia, the old fort, to the exposition grounds and botanical gardens, a distance of four miles. Down the center is a promenade, four rows of well kept poplar trees adorn the route and drives 100 feet wide are on each side.

This elongated park is dotted with statues of men famous in Chile. Many of these men were considered tyrants and were legally put to death or assassinated, but that makes no difference. The Chileans are glad to erect bronze or marble statues to their memories in the national park, no matter what they did to them when alive. It is somewhat astonishing to note that the names on a great many of these statues are Irish, such as O'Higgins, Pratt, Lynch and O'Brian. Nearly all of the Chilean leaders against Spain in the early part of the nineteenth century were Irish adventurers.

Peru furnishes many of the beautiful things to be seen in Santiago. They were not sold to the Chileans, nor were they presented to them. Peru and Chile have often been at war, and Peru has always lost. While these wars were in progress the Chileans had a way of sailing up to Callao and returning with great boatloads of plunder. Ornamental street lamps, carved stone benches, statuary, fountains, pianos, furniture, gold ornaments and everything which would tend to beautify the city and its homes were taken from the Peruvians and made use of in Santiago. Even iron fences and artistic tombstones were taken by the Chilean marauders. In the courtyard of the postoffice building are statues of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. They also came from Peru.

IN HONOR OF GARFIELD.

Monument to Be Erected Near Where He Died in Long Branch.

Long Branch, N. J., is about to honor the memory of President James A. Garfield, who died in the Franklyn cottage on Ocean avenue on Sept. 19, 1881, by the erection of a monument.

Several sites have been talked over by the committee, among them being the triangle at the entrance to the Franklyn cottage in Ocean avenue, says the New York Sun. The ground is owned by Charles T. Cook and the Washington Wilson estate. It is laid out as a park, being purchased by Mr. Cook and the late Mr. Wilson to prevent unsightly dwellings from being erected.

Old residents distinctly recall the bringing of President Garfield to Long Branch. The single track leading from the track of the New York and Long Branch railroad to the Franklyn cottage, a distance of a half mile, was laid in a single night. The first ties were not on the ground until 7 p. m., and the next morning an engine was gliding over the tracks. Two thousand men were used to construct the track, which was not torn up until after the body of Garfield had passed over the road to Washington. Many of the cottagers have souvenirs from the track. Oliver Byron, the actor, built a hut from the logs. He named it the "Garfield hut."

Gammel Ost, a New Dish.

The newest dish is gammel ost, says the New York Press. It looks like cheese, only it is a rich, mahogany brown. It spreads easily, like butter, and has a delicious taste, new and strange, a little like fine Parmesan cheese, a little like anchovy paste.

"It will make a bit, won't it?" asked the importing grocer, as he showed it to the woman customer. "I discovered it in Norway. I am going to sell it at $1.75 a pound.

"Gammel ost," he went on, "is the chief dish of the Norwegian peasants. It is made of goats' milk, herbs and sugar, and it is ripened two or three years. Yellow at first, it turns brown with age.

No Seeds in Apples.

Howard Garrett of Willstown township, Pa., claims to have solved the question of how to grow seedless apples and has two trees in his orchard which are bearing fruit and have been for several seasons. Just how it is done he will not explain, but he has the fruit. The apples have a core like any other variety, but there is not a seed in them. The flavor of the fruit is excellent.

No satisfaction like a "Star" chew!

Passes Void After This Month.

All passes on the railroads of the west will be void after August 28. This decision has just been reached, and hundreds of passes supposed to be good for the year will be piled in on that date. Orders to this effect have been issued by all the roads having headquarters at Omaha, including the Harriman lines. The pass feature of the rate law was not supposed to go into effect until January 1, 1907, but the legal department of various roads in the middle west have decided that the anti-pass clause is effective contemporaneously with other clauses of the law.

NEW COUNTY SCHOOL EXAMINER.

PROFESSOR CHARLES LAKE.

The position of County School Examiner is one of great trust and responsibility and inasmuch as the school examiners stand practically at the fountain head of the educational system of the county schools, Judge Brister has certainly been very fortunate in his selection of a new school examiner for the period of three years ensuing. Prof. Charles Lake, who was last Saturday appointed by Probate Judge Brister as county school examiner for the ensuing three years, is one of the best and most popular school teachers in Licking county.

Prof. C. H. Lake is a son of William and Eva Brooks Lake, and was born in McKean township, Licking county in 1879. He obtained the usual county school training in the schools of Granville township, and was certified to teach upon completion of this course. The following summer he taught school in McKean township and attended a normal school in Newark, where his work was such as to recommend him to the Granville school board. He was elected to the grammar department and remained three years, resigning to take the Hamilton township high school of Franklin county. After one year at that place he resigned to take charge of the Alexandria schools, where he has been for the past two years. He also attended summer school at the Wooster University in the summer of 1901-'2, University of Chicago summer of 1904-'5, and Ohio State University summer of 1906.

SEVEN GAS WELLS ON ALLTOP FARM

OWNER GETS $1,400 A YEAR AND ALSO HAS LAND FOR FARMING PURPOSE.

First Well on This Property Near Union Station Put Down Few Months Ago.

An interesting feature in connection with the development of the gas field in this locality is brought out in the case of the J. N. Alltop farm near Union Station. The farm in question has been developed, within a comparatively short time, from a bit of land which promised but little for its owner, to a large and good paying gas farm. This condition has been brought about by the strife between the Heisey and the Columbus companies in this section of the county.

A few months ago the Heisey company leased the farm in question and decided to put down a well. As soon as the Columbus company learned of this movement the land next the Alltop farm was leased and a number of wells were drilled near the boundaries of the farm. The Heisey company's first well proved to be a rich one and after that as fast as one company drilled a well the other would also until now there are seven wells on the Alltop property, all belonging to the Heisey company.

The Alltop farm consists of 100 acres only and although the land is not the best for ordinary farming purposes the gas wells have interfered but little with the cultivation of such crops as Mr. Alltop may see fit to raise. The Heisey company pays $200 per year for the lease for each well, making $1,400 that Mr. Alltop receives annually irrespective of his other interests in the farm and wells.

ACTIVE WORK ON WATER SYSTEM

WILL BE RESUMED SEPT. 1 ACCORDING TO PRESENT CALCULATIONS.

Contractors Say New Plant Will be Ready for Operation in Ninety Days Thereafter.

Resident Engineer E. A. Smith who has been selected by the engineering firm of Riggs & Sherman of Toledo, the new consulting engineers for the city, will arrive in the city perhaps tonight and will at once commence work on the plans for the new water plant. After thoroughly familiarizing himself with the plans the work will be recommended.

The contractors, the American Light and Water company, have ordered a large force of men to report here for duty, and it is expected that the work can be commenced promptly on the morning of September 1.

The new plans of distribution, the plans made by the late Engineer W. P. Mason, have all been gone over, and this matter has been fully settled. These plans were made under the direction of President Christian, of the Board of Public Service with suggestions from the fire chief as to the location of the numerous water plugs about the city. It affords the central and manufacturing portions of the city more adequate fire protection, increasing the number of hydrants.

The contractors assure the Board of Service that barring all accidents and interferences on the part of things beyond their control, the new plant will be ready for operation in 90 days. All the pipes will be underground by this time and it is believed that the engines being built will have been finished and delivered. While the water mains are being laid, the pumping station will either be rebuilt on a different location or else the present one will be changed radically so that the engines will not rest upon a foundation in the basement of the pumping station.

It is highly probable that the location will be changed to the Horn's hill property as this is the location most favored by the board. The present plant is very undesirable under existing conditions, as water now stands eight feet deep in the basement.

A compressed air engine consisting of 26 compressed air cylinders braced together with steel bands, is used to operate the temporary line which at present runs in the Simpson tunnel under the Alps. The cylinders supply the motive force to the engine.

Attention Old Soldiers.

On September 6th Lemert Post will entertain our State Department Commander at the Post room in Newark, and we not only invite all the old soldiers to be present but we insist that you come in on that day and help us to entertain our State Commander.

Whether you are a member of the Grand Army of the Republic or not we want you to come and we think you will see what a grand time we have you will want to be one of us.

The expense of becoming a member of and maintaining your membership in the G. A. R. is so small that all can afford to become members. A few indeed we think all old soldiers should be in the ranks of the G. A. R. as it affords a better record of them. In this way we can officially congratulate you when you get married or elected president, as we can officially attend your funeral when "taps" have been sounded the last time for you.

We will serve hot bean soup and coffee and would serve hard tack but we fear you might refuse to eat it, thereby exposing your age and teeth. If you live so far out that you think you could not attend the Post meetings, we have a way of getting around that. That for smoothness in its any thing you ever heard of. Come in on September 6th and let us tell you all about it.

SMYSER BECAME ILL AT COSHOCTON

PROSTRATED BY HEAT REMOVED TO HOTEL IN ALMOST A FAINTING CONDITION.

False Charge Made Against His Opponent in Race for 17th District Congressman.

Wooster, O., Aug. 27.—The Advocate's correspondent called at Congressman Smyser's home today and found that the patient is getting along nicely. Judge Smyser will be out this afternoon or tomorrow.

Coshocton, Aug. 27.—Congressman Smyser lined up with the Cannon stand-patting, in a speech before the Republican county convention here on Saturday afternoon with the declaration:

"I stand opposed to a revision of the tariff because I believe that policy is destructive of the best interests of the country."

He charged his opponent Mr. Ashbrook, with having voted against county option as a delegate to the Democratic state convention when, as a matter of fact, Mr. Ashbrook was not in the convention at the time the matter was considered.

Toward the close of his speech Mr. Smyser was prostrated by the heat, suffering great sudden pain in the chest, and he was helped from the hall to a hotel in almost a fainting condition. Several doctors were called and worked with him a long time and he went home Saturday night, although still very sick.

The convention named as delegates to the state convention, Captain E. L. Lybarger, R. A. Crawford, R. C. Snyder, Frank Karr, C. B. McCoy, John Brister and John Carroll. Prosecuting Attorney James Glenn, who conducted the Ben Dickerson trial, was endorsed for Common Pleas judge in the Third Subdivision of the Sixth Judicial District.

Following is the county ticket named: Prosecutor, Levi Williams; Recorder, J. W. McGruder; Commissioner, J. E. Aronholt; Infirmary Director, Leo Moore; Coroner, Dr. T. W. Lear.

It is being arranged to have the parade at 10 o'clock in the morning while the program of events being arranged will be carried out on the square.
